

Who is in My Family Tree ?

Ask Your Ancestors: Interview Questions

Choose a relative to interview to learn more about your family history!

Make sure to note the following:

what is the name of the person being interviewed?

what is the name of the person conducting the interview?

what is the relationship between the two?

Some questions to think about include the following:

what is your birthday? where were you born?

what are your parents' names?

How many brothers and sisters do you have? what are their names?

what school(s) did you go to? what was your favorite subject in school?

what activities did you enjoy growing up?

what is your favorite memory from childhood?

did you serve in the military? If so, what branch? when? Medals received?

did you get married? If so, who did you marry? when did you get married?

did you have any children? If so, what are your children's names?

what was your occupation? what was your favorite/worst job you ever had?

did you have any special pets during your life?

what church, clubs, or organizations do you belong to?

what is your favorite holiday memory?

what are your special talents?